About the Book

On January 24, 2017, Fiona the hippo was born prematurely at the Cincinnati Zoo. Weighing just 29 pounds, she was the smallest Nile hippo ever recorded. Her tiny size and fragile health made her survival seem almost impossible.

But Fiona had a fighting spirit. With the help of a dedicated team of caregivers, she slowly began to thrive. Her story captured the hearts of people around the world, who followed her progress online and sent her messages of love and support.

'Fiona Love at the Zoo' is the heartwarming tale of Fiona's incredible journey. From her premature birth to her remarkable recovery, this book is a celebration of her resilience, the wonders of wildlife, and the power of human compassion.

Stunning Photography and Heartwarming Prose

With stunning photography and heartwarming prose, 'Fiona Love at the Zoo' brings Fiona's story to life. Readers will feel like they are right there with her as she takes her first steps, swims in her pool, and interacts with her caregivers.

This book is a must-read for anyone who loves animals, wildlife, or heartwarming stories. It is a reminder that even in the face of adversity, hope and love can prevail.
