Bestselling author Stephanie Palmer weaves a complex and suspenseful tale that explores the darkest recesses of the human psyche. Prepare to be captivated by a story that blurs the lines between reality and illusion, and challenges your perception of truth.

Synopsis

In the isolated and eerie Smithstone Hall, a prestigious boarding school, a young woman named Anya Petrova is found brutally murdered in her dormitory room. Detective Inspector Tom Harper is called to investigate the crime, but he soon realizes that this is no ordinary case.

As Harper delves deeper into the investigation, he uncovers a web of secrets and lies that permeate the halls of Smithstone Hall. The students, faculty, and staff all seem to be hiding something, and Harper must navigate through a maze of deception to find the truth.

With each clue he follows, Harper finds himself drawn into a dangerous game of cat and mouse with a killer who is always one step ahead. The lines between sanity and madness begin to blur as Harper faces his own demons and confronts the darkness that lurks within him.
