Unveiling the Heretics

Mabry introduces us to enigmatic figures branded as heretics, those who dared to challenge established religious doctrines. Meet Marcion, a second-century Christian who proposed a radical interpretation of the Gospel, and Priscillian, a charismatic Spanish bishop whose unconventional teachings led to his execution. These heretics were not merely dissidents but visionaries who planted seeds of doubt and inspired new ways of thinking.

Exploring the Mystics

Delve into the mystical realm alongside extraordinary individuals who sought a deeper connection with the divine. From Hildegard of Bingen, the visionary nun who experienced celestial revelations, to Meister Eckhart, the German mystic who preached the path of spiritual liberation, Mabry illuminates their transformative experiences and profound insights.

Revealing the Misfits

Meet the misfits, those who dared to break free from societal constraints and pursue their own unique paths. Discover the enigmatic life of Artemisia Gentileschi, a pioneering female artist who defied the male-dominated art world, and the extraordinary story of Anne Bonny, the notorious pirate who sailed on the high seas alongside male buccaneers.
