Latke the Lucky Dog is a heartwarming story about a dog who finds his home on Hanukkah. This delightful book is perfect for families of all ages and makes a great gift for the holidays.

Latke is a stray dog who has been wandering the streets for weeks. He is hungry, cold, and lonely. One night, he comes to a house where he sees a family celebrating Hanukkah. The family invites Latke inside and gives him food, water, and a warm bed. Latke is so happy to have found a home that he wags his tail so hard that it knocks over the menorah. But the family doesn't mind. They are just happy to have Latke in their lives.

Latke quickly becomes a part of the family. He plays with the children, goes for walks with the adults, and even helps to light the menorah each night. Latke is a lucky dog to have found such a loving home.

Latke the Lucky Dog is a heartwarming story that teaches children about the importance of family, friendship, and giving. This delightful book is perfect for families of all ages and makes a great gift for the holidays.
