Mouse and Friends Have a Passover Seder is a heartwarming story about the importance of family, tradition, and the holiday of Passover. Perfect for young children, this book is a great way to introduce them to the story of Passover and the seder.

The story begins with Mouse and his friends getting ready for the Passover seder. They clean the house, set the table, and light the candles. Then, they all sit down to enjoy a traditional Passover meal.

As they eat, Mouse tells the story of Passover to his friends. He tells them about how the Israelites were slaves in Egypt and how God sent Moses to lead them to freedom. He also tells them about the ten plagues that God sent upon Egypt and how the Israelites were finally able to escape.

After dinner, Mouse and his friends sing songs and play games. They also read from the Haggadah, which is the book that tells the story of Passover.

Mouse and Friends Have a Passover Seder is a beautiful and meaningful story that teaches children about the importance of family, tradition, and the holiday of Passover. This book is a great way to introduce young children to the story of Passover and the seder.
