A Twist of Fate

Kendall's fateful encounter with Bundy occurred in 1969 Seattle. An ambitious law student with a bright future ahead of her, she found herself drawn to the enigmatic stranger's charm and intelligence. Unbeknownst to her, Bundy was already harboring a sinister secret, a dark obsession that would forever alter their lives.

As their romance progressed, Kendall began to notice disturbing inconsistencies in Bundy's behavior. Mood swings, unexplained absences, and violent outbursts hinted at a hidden side she had never anticipated. Yet, through it all, she clung to the hope that she could somehow save the man she loved.

A Nightmare Unfolds

In 1974, Bundy's true nature came to light when he was linked to a series of gruesome murders across several states. Kendall's world crumbled as the realization dawned upon her that the man she had given her heart to was a cold-blooded killer.

Torn between loyalty and justice, Kendall wrestled with the difficult decision of whether to expose Bundy's crimes. Fear and disbelief warred within her as she grappled with the unimaginable reality that she had shared a life with a monster.

The Search for Truth and Redemption

In the aftermath of Bundy's capture and execution, Kendall embarked on a quest to understand the complexities of her former lover. Through extensive research and interviews, she pieced together a chilling portrait of a man who seemed both charming and manipulative, intelligent and depraved.

In this updated and expanded edition of her memoir, Kendall delves deeper into the psychological motivations and disturbing childhood experiences that shaped Bundy into the monster he became. She reveals new details about their relationship and the chilling dynamics that allowed him to deceive even those closest to him.
