In the bustling metropolis of New York City, where skyscrapers pierce the heavens and the relentless rhythm of modern life drowns out ancient whispers, a forgotten legend stirs from its slumber.

Merlin, the legendary sorcerer and guardian of Camelot, has been cast into the future, trapped within the body of a young man named Michael Carter. Stripped of his memories and powers, he finds himself navigating the labyrinthine streets of Manhattan, a world far removed from the chivalrous realm he once knew.

As Michael grapples with his newfound identity and the strange occurrences that plague him, he crosses paths with enigmatic individuals who hold the key to unlocking his forgotten past. Morgana, the enigmatic sorceress, seeks to exploit Merlin's power for her own nefarious ends, while Arthur Pendragon, the Once and Future King, struggles to rally his scattered knights against the rising tide of darkness.

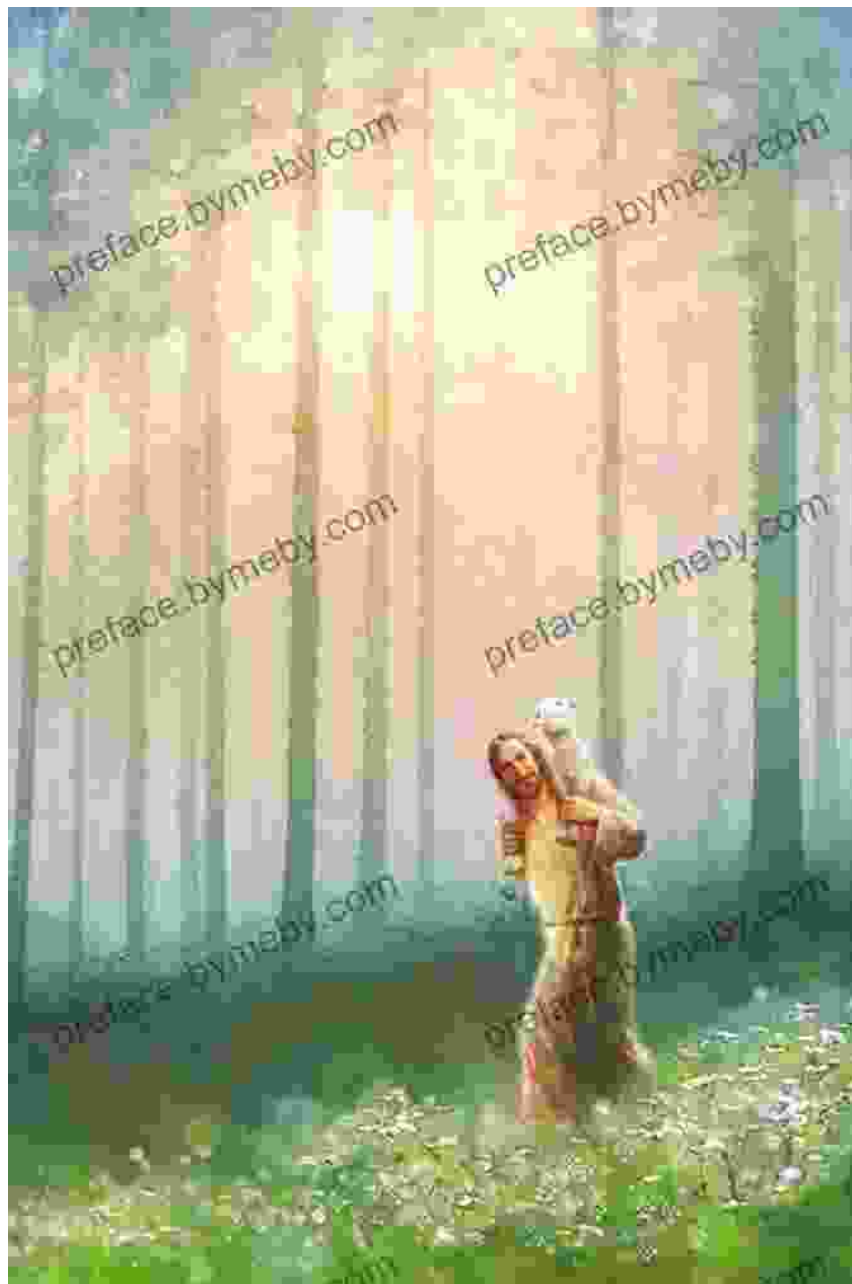

In a realm where ancient prophecies collide with the complexities of the modern world, Merlin must confront his destiny.
