In his groundbreaking book, Rapport: The Four Ways to Read People, communication expert and bestselling author Dr. Jack Schafer reveals the four essential keys to establishing rapport:

1. Body Language: Learn to decode the subtle cues your body sends out, and use them to mirror and build trust.
2. Facial Expressions: Discover how to interpret the emotions behind different facial movements, and use them to gauge interest and engagement.

3. Speech Patterns: Analyze the way people speak, including their tone, pitch, and volume, to uncover their thoughts and feelings.
4. Conversational Skills: Master the art of active listening, open-ended questions, and empathy to create a genuine connection and foster rapport.

Through real-life examples and practical exercises, Dr. Schafer provides a comprehensive guide to reading people and building strong relationships in all areas of your life.
