London, 1888. The city is gripped by fear as a series of brutal murders terrorizes the streets. The victims are all women, and their bodies bear the unmistakable signs of a depraved and sadistic killer. The police are baffled, and the public is clamoring for justice.

In the midst of the chaos, a young woman named Mary Jane Kelly emerges as an unlikely heroine. Driven by a thirst for justice and a keen intellect, Mary Jane sets out to track down the killer herself.

Mary Jane's investigation takes her into the darkest corners of Victorian London, where she encounters a cast of unforgettable characters: a brilliant surgeon with a troubled past, a cunning detective with a secret agenda, and an enigmatic medium who claims to have visions of the killer.

As Mary Jane gets closer to the truth, she realizes that she is playing a deadly game. The killer is a master of disguise and deception, and he will stop at nothing to protect his identity.

Mary Jane must use all of her wits and courage to outsmart the killer and bring him to justice. But as she gets closer to the truth, she also uncovers a dark and twisted secret that could shatter her world forever.
