About the Book

The Golden Dreidel is a magical Hanukkah adventure novel by Ellen Kushner. It tells the story of Rachel, a young Jewish girl who embarks on a quest to find the golden dreidel and save her family from a wicked sorcerer.

The novel is set in the fictional town of Chelm, where Rachel lives with her family. On the first night of Hanukkah, Rachel's father is kidnapped by the evil sorcerer, Balthazar. Balthazar demands that Rachel bring him the golden dreidel, a magical artifact that grants its owner the power to control the world.

Rachel sets out on a quest to find the golden dreidel, accompanied by her friends, Reb Mendel the rabbi and Sarah the wise woman. Along the way, they encounter a variety of obstacles, including snowstorms, bandits, and a giant spider. But Rachel never gives up hope, and with the help of her friends, she eventually finds the golden dreidel and defeats Balthazar.

The Golden Dreidel is a heartwarming and adventurous story that celebrates the spirit of Hanukkah. It is a perfect book for children and adults alike, and it is sure to become a holiday classic.
