About the Book

The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead is a hilarious and heartwarming guide to surviving grades 6-8 with confidence and humor. Written by a former middle school teacher and current dad, Thomas Morstead, the book is full of practical advice, funny stories, and relatable characters.

Thomas knows that middle school can be a tough time, but he also knows that it can be a lot of fun. In this book, he shares his own experiences and insights to help kids make the most of their middle school years.

The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead is divided into three sections:

1. Surviving the Social Scene
2. Aceing the Academic Game
3. Thriving in Middle School

In each section, Thomas covers a variety of topics, including:

- Making friends and fitting in
- Dealing with bullies
- Managing homework and studying
- Getting involved in extracurricular activities
- Developing good habits and making healthy choices

The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead is a must-read for any kid who is about to start middle school, or who is already in middle school and looking for some guidance. It is a funny, heartwarming, and practical guide to help kids make the most of their middle school years.
